Subject: Can I count you in?

Hey there {first name},

Shoo, what a month. I've been super busy cooking up some magic for you to look forward to. Let's dive right in.

TL;DR: The first ever Evoking Art Experience is happening on 24 April from 2-11pm. Get your tickets here. You don't want to miss this one.

There is so much artistic talent in Wilderness and the surrounding areas. I'm talking painters, mural artists, musicians, and poets. It's about time there was an event that brought this emerging talent together.

So I teamed up with a bunch of local artists, across multiple disciplines, to bring a first-of-its-kind event to the Garden Route. And not just anywhere on the Garden Route, but right here in my lovely little studio.

The Evoking Art Experience will take place on Saturday, 24 April from 2-11pm. A platform to showcase, collaborate, engage and connect with the broader creative culture that exists in the Wilderness area.

Now, my studio is waaaaay too small to host all this awesomeness by itself. So Timberlake Organic Village jumped onboard to help host the event.

You can expect a lively outdoor environment where creatives and collectors get to connect and enjoy the creative spirit together.

There'll be art auctions, poetry recitals, a drum performance, live music, and so much more.

Sounds amazing right? But get this: it's totally free.

That's right. For the same price as a Vic Bay peeler, you'll be entertained, inspired, and get to meet the happy faces creating amazing art in this beautiful part of the world.

And I'll be honest, it's shaping up to be a bit of a party too. Local favourites will warm things up on the mainstage before our visitors from Cape Town keep you entertained after sunset.

Space is limited though.

So if you haven't already, go to the Evoking website now to register for your free ticket so you don't miss out. Easy peasy.

If you want more of a tailored experience, I have something for you. There are a small number of VIP tickets available at R500 a pop. VIP's get:

- Limited edition "Conducting Day-To-Day Life" print by Ingrid Nuss (A3. Only 50 available)
- R200 bid credit for the auction
- Seat at a VIP table
- Complimentary canapes and wine

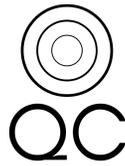

I'm pretty sure all this comes to a value of more than R500. So you better jump on this quick before everyone else catches on. Go here for the VIP treatment.

Limited edition prints

I've had a few other things in the works as well. First up, you have the opportunity to collect 1 of 10 large, signed, limited edition prints of an original painting.

"Conducting Day-To-Day Life". Inspired by star trails, visual patterns of audio frequencies, organic patterns, and images of paradise.

This painting speaks volumes about how I feel about how you live your life. Especially where there is a choice involved around taking control of your actions.

Despite the difficulties (or opportunities for growth) we have a strong capability to steer our lives. Every action has a ripple effect and an energy flow, and we have the power to choose to see the positive.

Claim your print. Only 10 available.

Come and view the original painting at the Evoking Art Experience (that you've already got your ticket for, right?).

Because you're on my list, you're the first to hear about these limited edition prints. In a week or two, I'm going to let the masses on social media know about them. So if you have a wall that needs some sprucing up, don't delay.

Phew, that's a lot for one month. But I have one more thing for you.

Thrice as nice for half the price

For the next two weeks, you can grab my Jungle Series (set of 3 prints) for a whopping 50% off. Yup, that's 3 prints for the pocket friendly price of R525.

This offer only applies for the next 2 weeks. So, you guessed it, don't wait around if you've had your eye on these (are you starting to notice a theme here?).

OK. That's it for now. I'll be back in your inbox next month with some more cool stuff for you.

If you spot me at Evoking, come say hi!

Ingrid

P.S. The event is free this year. But probably won't be next year. So make sure you get the most bang for no bucks and register online here before there are no spots left. Remember, space is VERY limited.
